Cell renewing night cream

Uneven tone and texture, hyperpigmentation, enlarged pores, sun damage, early aging and blemishes often challenge our relationship with our skin. Rebiome ReMoisturize night cream optimises and improves the surface of the skin, repairing and strengthening its barrier function. The microbiome rebalancing ingredients have anti-inflammatory effects to defend against external stressors. Increasing cell renewal and supplying much-needed oxygen to tired cells, wrinkles are reduced, and elasticity increased.

Balance and boost your skin microbiome

Rebiome ReMoisturize strengthens and repairs the skin's natural barrier function, reducing wrinkles and maintaining elasticity and softness. Formulated with Fensebiome™ peptide to stimulate the skin's natural probiotic activity, it is enriched with a powerful cocktail of antioxidants, vitamin E, olive squalane, microalgae, natural amino acids and more, all of which help to boost oxygen supplies to cells to improve renewal.
